

I think the do not call laws should be further enhanced and not weakened at all. They continue to find a way to make it through the stringentest of laws. They bother me at my home. I am forced to pay a fee to the local phone company so these people are not able to bother me in my home. Only in America can this be allowed to continue.